Notwithstanding our right to claim direct payment the purchaser shall be entitled to receive the payment on the assigned claims. To this end, we agree to not demand payment on the assigned claims to the extent the purchaser complies with all his obligations for payment and does not become subject to an application for insolvency or similar proceedings or to any stay of payments.

If such alternative performance has failed, the purchaser is entitled to reduce the purchase price or to withdraw from the contract.

§9 Complaints

Faulty, damaged or incorrectly delivered merchandise will be exchanged. To clarify the situation and the further coordination of the conversion process, we ask the purchaser kindly to contact us directly before the purchaser returns the goods. (1) As a european consumer the purchaser has the right to withdraw from his online purchase as well as from purchases. This "cooling off" period expires 14 days after the day the purchaser received the goods. If this period expires on a non-working day, the purchaser's deadline is extended till the next working day.

(2) The purchaser can choose to withdraw from his order for any reason within this timeframe - even if he simply changed his mind. To exercise the right of withdrawal, the purchaser must unequivocally inform us of his decision to withdraw from the purchase. The purchaser can do this, for example, by adding a written statement to the goods that he is returning by post, or by sending a fax or e-mail or the purchaser may use the model withdrawal form, which he will find on our homepage. The model withdrawal form is not obligatory. Insert the purchasers name, geographical address and, where available, the purchasers telephone number, fax number and e-mail address. To meet the withdrawal deadline, it is sufficient for the purchaser to send his communication concerning the exercise of the right of withdrawal before the withdrawal period has expired. It is not enough to just send the goods back!

(3) Effects of withdrawal

If the purchaser withdraw from this contract, we shall reimburse to the purchaser all payments received from the purchaser, including the costs of delivery (with the exception of the supplementary costs resulting from the purchasers choice of a type of delivery other than the least expensive type of standard delivery offered by us), but we will delay the refund till we have received the goods back or evidence that the purchaser sent them back. We will carry out such reimbursement using the same means of payment as the purchaser used for the initial transaction, unless the purchaser has expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, the purchaser will not incur any fees as a result of such reimbursement. In every case, the purchaser will have to pay the costs of returning the goods, if the shipping address is outside of Germany.

(4) For bulky goods (such as large equipment), we will give the purchaser (at request) at least an estimation of the cost of returning the goods. The purchaser must send the goods back within 14 days of informing us that he wants to withdraw.

(5) But still, the purchaser shall send back the goods or hand them over to us. The purchaser will have to bear the direct cost of returning the goods during the cooling-off period. The purchaser is only liable for any diminished value of the goods resulting from the handling other than what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the goods. The purchaser has no right to withdraw in cases where you ordered urgent repairs and maintenance work.

(1) In case of intent or gross negligence on our part or by our agents or assistants in performance we are liable according to the provisions of applicable law; the same applies in case of breach of fundamental contract obligations.
